

Feature: User searches for product

Scenario: Client searches for product

Given that the customer is on the home page

And enters a product name in the search field

When the customers clicks the search icon to search

Then the system should return a list of search results

Step Definitions

SearchProductStepDefinitions

